AT SAINT IGNATIUS HIGH SCHOOL

From literature to grammar, creative writing to poetry, our English department teaches students to write well and read critically.

Electives

- Creative Writing
- Special Topics in Literature and Composition

Objectives

The English Department's program strengthens students' abilities to read, think and write analytically and effectively. We believe that a Jesuit education allows for the fullest development of all human qualities and ascribes to the Jesuit ideal of eloquentia perfecta, speaking and writing artfully and fluently. Our program emphasizes understanding, application, analysis, synthesis and evaluation; skills that are critical not only to the assessment of literature but to the navigation of life itself.

Courses

The English curriculum at Saint Ignatius includes reading novels, writing research papers and a pair of AP classes, available to upperclassmen.

- English I, II, III, IV
- Honors English I, II, III, IV
- AP English Literature
- AP English Language
- AP Seminar
